Why Choose the Yealink MeetingBoard

According to recent market research, the global video conferencing market is projected to reach $10.92 billion by 2027, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.45% from 2020¹. In the rapidly evolving landscape of video conferencing, MTR-A has emerged as an irresistible trend, revolutionising the way we connect and collaborate.

A recent report indicates that MTR-A has overtaken MTR-W in market share, capturing 35% of the market compared to MTR-W's 30% as of Q2 2024². As hybrid work continues to rise, MTR-A is setting new standards for effective and efficient virtual communication. Among the top choices for MTR-A, Yealink MeetingBoard stands out as the first option, offering exceptional video and audio quality, seamless integration, collaboration, and advanced features in its All-in-One design that caters to various needs of modern businesses.
